FROM CURRITUCK TO CHEROKEE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Correspondents and Exchanges.

The Carolina Central Fair will be held at Greensboro October 10-13.

An apple fair, at which North Carolina grown apples are on exhibit, is in progress at Asheville.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its annual State Convention at Raleigh October 1-4.

Charlotte is to have another cotton mill. The Calvin Manufacturing Company are the incorporators and the capital is $300,000.

As a result of Tuesday's election in Wadesboro, saloons carried by a majority of fifty-three, and there was a majority of seventeen for distilleries.

The Anson County Farmers' Association has pledged itself not to sell cotton for less than eleven cents, or cottonseed for less than twenty-five cents.

Albemarle, Stanly County, has voted $25,000 of bonds for the construction of the proposed Southbound Railroad from Winston-Salem to Wadesboro.

Leaf tobacco buyers say that the crop this season, except in the west, is light and thin; the further eastward one goes the lighter and thinner the leaf is. West of Raleigh it is much better than elsewhere.

James E. O'Hara, colored, once a member of Congress from the Second District, and a lawyer of some prominence, died at his home at New Bern Saturday. He was born in the West Indies and was sixty-five years old.

Colored girls have been substituted for white ones in the Balfour Knitting Mills at Henderson, in this State, says the Gold Leaf. The owners did not want to make this change, but were forced to do so because they could not get white labor enough to operate the mill.

District Attorney Holton was in Washington this week consulting the powers in regard to the indicted Federal officials in this State. It is announced that the Department of Justice is behind Ms. Holton in the prosecution of these cases, and that none of them will be compromised.

W. R. Murray, who killed his uncle at Durham some months ago, was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to two years on the roads. This case was appealed and the Supreme Court has affirmed the lower court. Murray will have to serve his term unless the Governor pardons him.

The farmers want eleven cents for their cotton and ought to get it, says an exchange. The Messenger says that much of the cotton received at Wilmington is consigned with instructions to hold until cotton reaches eleven cents. The exporters and great spinners are resolved to keep it below eleven cents. It is a battle royal. If the farmers can keep cotton off the market, they can win.

The four attendants at the State Hospital in Raleigh, charged with having caused the death of Thomas Nall, a patient from Chatham, by rough usage, were last week released on bonds of $1,000 each under habeas corpus proceedings. Their release is probably due to the fact that a number of prominent physicians testified that Nall's death was not due to rough usage, but to over-exertion in attempting to escape.

Last Week's North Carolina Crop Bulletin.

There has been no improvement in the cotton crop during the past week. The warm, dry weather caused it to open rapidly, and in some places prematurely. The crop will now be more than fair, and in places it will be very light. It is generally reported that there will be no top crop, owing to shedding; many correspondents state that the bolls are small and the lint short; in the south-central counties and in the extreme north-eastern portion the bolls are opening prematurely, owing to rust; army worms are doing considerable damage to late cotton in Beaufort, Craven, Jones and Duplin Counties.

Tobacco curing is completed in the eastern portion of the State. Cutting and curing is in progress in the central district, where the crop is reported improved and in good condition, except in Rockingham County where some of it is badly burnt and specked; it is curing well, color and texture are good, but the leaf is light. In the western portion slight damage by worms is reported.

Corn improved during the past week, but late corn in some places suffered from drought, and some correspondents report that it will not mature; a poor crop is expected in the eastern, while the prospects are for good crops in the western and central portions. Fodder is about all secured in the eastern and central districts; cutting is in progress in the western. The saving of peavine hay is under way and good yields are being secured. Clover was benefited by the rains and is looking good. White potatoes have improved and digging is in progress in the western counties; sweet potatoes are doing well and a good crop is promised. Peanuts, turnips and beans are generally reported good; cabbage poor. The sorghum crop is in good condition, and in places molasses making is under way. The buckwheat crop will be good. Apples are reported good in some of the western counties, but there is complaint of dropping and dry rot. Pastures are fair.

County Alliance Meetings.

Wilson.
